FRED MCCALLUM

PRESIDENT AT&T ALABAMA

Fred McCallum was born and raised in Florence, Alabama. He earned his Bachelor of Science Degree from Auburn University, and his law degree from the University of Alabama, where he was an editor of the Alabama Law Review. He is a member of the Alabama, Florida and Georgia Bar Associations. After a clerkship with the Federal District Court in North Alabama, he worked with the law firm of Lange, Simpson, Robinson and Somerville in Birmingham before joining South Central Bell in 1987. Since then, he has held positions of increasing responsibility in the wireline and wireless business units.

He served in South Central Bell's Alabama and Headquarters' operations from 1987 to 1991. From 1991 to 1995 he was Vice-President and General Counsel of MobileComm, a BellSouth wireless subsidiary. From 1996 to 2002, he was General Counsel for Georgia Operations, and Senior Counsel responsible for securing state and federal long distance approval in the former BellSouth southeastern states. From 2002 to 2007 he served as Vice President Regulatory and External Affairs for BellSouth's Headquarters' Organization in Atlanta, where he was responsible for the development and support of BellSouth's regulatory and legislative agenda in state and federal arenas.

After AT&T and BellSouth merged, he served as Vice President - Southern Region Legislative and Regulatory Affairs for AT&T in Atlanta, where he was responsible for strategy development and implementation of AT&T's key legislative and regulatory goals in the Southern Region.

He was appointed President – AT&T Alabama effective June 1, 2008. Fred has been appointed to the board of directors for the Birmingham Business Alliance, the Greater Alabama Council-Boy Scouts of America, the Business Council of Alabama, the United Way of Central Alabama, the Birmingham Civil Rights Institute, the Economic Development Partnership of Alabama, the Alys Stephens Center Corporate Board and the Public Affairs Research Council of Alabama. In addition he is currently serving as chair of the Birmingham Education Foundation and the "Yes We Can - Birmingham" campaign.

Fred is married to Connie McCallum and they have two sons. Will, a recent graduate of UNC Chapel Hill, and Grant, a sophomore engineering student at Auburn University. He also enjoys being a private pilot and playing golf in his spare time.
